

How do I open a food truck in Aspen?

There are zoning restrictions in Aspen that essentially prohibit mobile food operations. There is the ability to install a temporary food stand on private property. These are approved on a case-by-case basis and require individual arrangements with the property owner. Really the only legal presence of food carts and trucks under current rules is when they're incorporated into a special event. To learn more about zoning regulations, please contact planneroftheday@gmail.com.