City of Aspen Year-to-Date Financials

Overview

As required by section 9.13(c) of the City of Aspen Municipal Charter, this month end financial status report provides a snapshot of the City's budgetary and investment status.

This report is intended as a policy-level document for overall review of the City's fiscal condition and how that condition relates to major budget issues. It is intended for the use of the City's agency and department directors and key staff in each department with budget management responsibilities. As indicated by the charter section noted above, it is also intended for use by the Council.

How To Use This Document

As noted in the table of contents, this report is presented in fund number order. Therefore, departmental information may be found in more than one place. The Streets Department, for example, will find its financial information in two places. The General Fund section includes the Streets Department's operations. The Asset Management Fund includes capital programs in process for the Streets Department.

This report provides summarized financial information. More detailed information is available for each department through the City's financial system. Detailed revenue and expenditure reports and balance sheets can be printed out by fund or by transaction. If assistance is needed in accessing this information, Finance Department staff can assist in finding the information.

Financial Summary

This report provides a preliminary year-to-date assessment of the City's budgetary condition. Major revenue sources as well as year-to-date expenditures for all funds are presented on the modified accrual basis.

The following two pages provide a summary of the year-to-date revenues and expenditures versus budget. Where current revenues are exceeded by appropriation authority, sufficient unrestricted beginning cash balances exist and have been approved for use by City Council to cover these costs.

FIXED INCOME MARKET REVIEW

As of July 31, 2021

Chart 1: Used cars drive inflation, but may moderate

Source: Bloomberg, July 31, 2021.

Chart 2: Economic data strong, but fewer upside surprises

Source: Citi, Bloomberg, July 31, 2021.

Economic Indicators and Monetary Policy

The Federal Reserve kept its statement largely unchanged at its policy meeting and made no formal communications around 'tapering' its asset purchases. Its statement retained the reference to "substantial further progress" being required before altering policy. Chair Powell also noted the labor market is "some ways away" from hitting that benchmark, albeit acknowledging that significant progress has been made since the start of the year.

CPI surprised again to the upside in June, rising by 0.9% on a monthly basis and 5.4% year-on-year. However, 'transitory' inflation drivers were still the culprits, particularly used cars (which may moderate given leading indicators – see Chart 1) as well as airfares, lodging and rental cars. 'Stickier' items, such as rents and owner-equivalent rents rose a trend-like 0.25%, while medical service prices, another bellwether of persistent inflation, was unchanged.

Elsewhere, economic data continued to be strong on an absolute basis but was less likely to outperform expectations (Chart 2). Real GDP in Q2 rose by 6.5% pa, a softer-than-expected increase but with consumption and business equipment investment still rising notably with a larger-than-expected drag from net exports and inventories. The ISM manufacturing PMI fell 0.6pt, to 60.6, in June on mixed readings across the major components. The US economy added 850,000 jobs in June, moderately above consensus of 720,000.

Although close to 60% of the US population was fully vaccinated by the end of the month, the spread of the delta COVID-19 variant caused some market jitters and resulted in the CDC recommending indoor mask mandates be re-implemented once certain hospitalization metrics are breached and some areas implemented such measures.

Interest Rate Summary

Yields generally fell at longer maturities. At the end of July, the 3-month US Treasury bill yielded 0.05%, the 6-month US Treasury bill yielded 0.05%, the 2-year US Treasury note yielded 0.19%, the 5-year US Treasury note yielded 0.69% and the 10-year US Treasury note yielded 1.47%.

Past performance is not a guide to future performance. The value of investments and any income from them will fluctuate and is not guaranteed (this may partly be due to exchange rate changes) and investors may not get back the amount invested. Transactions in foreign securities may be executed and settled in local markets. Performance comparisons will be affected by changes in interest rates. Investment returns fluctuate due to changes in market conditions. Investment involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. No assurance can be given that the performance objectives of a given strategy will be achieved. The information contained herein is for your reference only and is being provided in response to your specific request and has been obtained from sources believed to be reliable; however, no representation is made regarding its accuracy or completeness. This document must not be used for the purpose of an offer or solicitation in any jurisdiction or in any circumstances in which such offer or solicitation is unlawful or otherwise not permitted. This document should not be duplicated, amended, or forwarded to a third party without consent from Insight. Investment advisory services in North America are provided through two different SEC-registered investment advisers using the brand Insight Investment: Insight North America LLC (INA) and Insight Investment International Limited (IIL). The North American investment advisers are associated with a broader group of global investment managers that also (individually and collectively) use the corporate brand Insight Investment and may be referred to as Insight, Insight Group or Insight Investment.

INA is an investment adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended. Registration with the SEC does not imply a certain level of skill or training. You may request, without charge, additional information about Insight. Moreover, specific information relating to Insights strategies, including investment advisory fees, may be obtained from INA's Form ADV Part 2A, which is available without charge upon request.

Where indicated, performance numbers used in the analysis are gross returns. The performance reflects the reinvestment of all dividends and income. INA charges management fees on all portfolios managed and these fees will reduce the returns on the portfolios. For example, assume that $30 million is invested in an account with INA, and this account achieves a 5.0% annual return compounded monthly, gross of fees, for a period of five years. At the end of five years that account would have grown to $38,500,760 before the deduction of management fees. Assuming management fees of 0.25% per year are deducted monthly from the account, the value at the end of the five year period would be $38,022,447. Actual fees for new accounts are dependent on size and subject to negotiation. INA's investment advisory fees are discussed in Part 2A of its Form ADV.

Unless otherwise stated, the source of information is Insight. Any forecasts or opinions are Insight's own at the date of this document (or as otherwise specified) and may change. Material in this publication is for general information only and is not advice, investment advice, or the recommendation of any purchase or sale of any security. Insight makes no implied or expressed recommendations concerning the manner in which an account should or would be handled, as appropriate investment strategies depend upon specific investment guidelines and objectives and should not be construed to be an assurance that any particular security in a strategy will remain in any fund, account, or strategy, or that a previously held security will not be repurchased. It should not be assumed that any of the security transactions or holdings referenced herein have been or will prove to be profitable or that future investment decisions will be profitable or will equal or exceed the past investment performance of the securities listed.

For trading activity the Clearing broker will be reflected. In certain cases the Clearing broker will differ from the Executing broker.

In calculating ratings distributions and weighted average portfolio quality, Insight assigns U.S. Treasury and U.S. agency securities a quality rating based on the methodology used within the respective benchmark index. When Moody's, S&P and Fitch rate a security, Bank of America and Merrill Lynch indexes assign a simple weighted average statistic while Barclays indexes assign the median statistic. Insight assigns all other securities the lower of Moody's and S&P ratings.

Information about the indices shown here is provided to allow for comparison of the performance of the strategy to that of certain well-known and widely recognized indices. There is no representation that such index is an appropriate benchmark for such comparison. You cannot invest directly in an index and the indices represented do not take into account trading commissions and/or other brokerage or custodial costs. The volatility of the indices may be materially different from that of the strategy. In addition, the strategy's holdings may differ substantially from the securities that comprise the indices shown.
